

if we pay for the services performed by xm radio i do not think that nab's should have any right to dictate for lack of a better word what programming is played because it is one of our rights